Community Update – Jedburgh & District – PS Ali Granger

Events season is in full swing with the final week of Hawick Common riding currently taking place. Local officers look forward to the Jethart Callants Festival later this month.

Last month's report mentioned changes to the structure of community policing in the Scottish Borders, and I also spoke about this at the Cheviot Area Partnership meeting. I have attached a letter from the Deputy Local Area Commander, Inspector Robbie Noble alongside this report to provide some clarification.

Community Officers are not funded by Scottish Borders Council and are the first point of contact for communities regarding any issues or problems. There is one community officer per ward area – Jedburgh and District still have their highly experienced community officer – PC Gary Chisholm.

Community Action Team officers are funded by Scottish Borders Council, and there are two officers per Area Locality – Cheviot has PC Kirsty Chisholm and PC Bruce Anderson. They work closely with the Community Officers providing action in areas of concern.

Last month's report also detailed potential dog attacks of lambs near to Jedburgh. Post mortem results state the injuries sustained to the lambs were very likely to have been caused by dogs. In total there have been 4 similar attacks from December – May around the Jedburgh area, the last incident taking place 01/05/2023. Any persons with any information regarding these incidents or the dog/s responsible are urged to contact police on 101 or anonymously using Crimestoppers 0800 555111
